ARGUEMENT DUE IN MURDER TRIAL

Story of Brutal Treatment Told by Mother Who Slew Father of Her Child; Attorneys Weep As She Reveals Sufferings At Hands Of Man She Once Loved and Married; Court Room Is Crowded

Afternoon

Proceedings in the trial of Mrs. Flossie Cunningham produced frequent clashes between attorneys for defense Camp & Camp and Criminal District Attorney Morrison.

When court convened after lunch Mrs. Cunningham was questioned by State's Attorney Morrison. Frequently E. A. Camp, senior member of the defense firm, asked the court for a ruling on a plea to dismiss the jury. He charged misconduct on the part of the state. Nature of the questions objected to were those Mrs. Cunningham was asked concerning her forenoon testmony on how her husband had at times planned to kill her.

It appeared the defense attorneys were attempting to bring about a mistrial. Judge Graham Gillis overruled all defnse counsel objections in this regard.

At one time the jury was taken from the box while testimony was taken regarding her arrest

Forenoon

Mrs. O. J. Cunningham, on trial for the killing of her husband in Rockdale, Thursday, October 3, told a crowded court room this morning of brutal marital discord for which she said her husband was responsible.

After a two hour examination by sobbing defense attorneys, the jury had heard how Cunningham had made repeated threats on Mrs. Cunningham's life and how she had been made the victim of numerous schemes whereby Cunningham was to obtain money and dispose of some of his enemies.

She testified that he had often boasted to her of his escapades and desperate character and told her of a hereofore undisclosed murder in Houston when he "disposed" of the husband of a woman with whom he was accused of having improper relations.

Mrs. Cunningham testified to several attempts by Cunningham to hurt her by the throwing of chairs and hot coffee which did not suit his taste.

She told of one occasion where he choked her into insensibility in a fit of rage over the coming birth of the child whose custody she sought prior to the killing. According to Mrs. Cunningham her husband would not let her attend church nor see any of her sisters, calling her and her sisters bad names on many occasions.

Mrs. Cunningham stated that for several days before the shooting occured he prevented her from having the child but permitted her to hear its cries in the night from the nearby Cunningham home. On Thursday Mrs. Cunningham said she saw her husband leave with the baby and thinking that she would never see it again she took her gun and tried to overtake him hoping to scare him into giving up the child.

She said he refused her pleas but when he finally put the baby down in the A & P store she sought to grab it and run away. Mrs. Cunningham here told of how he ran toward her with what she thought was intention of killing her whereupon she took her pistol from her purse and fired several shots at him.

The defendant stated that she remembered nothing that happened after the first shot was fired but that she later found herself in the ice house down the street with the child.

Other witnesses to testify were Dr. E. Rischar for the state, and Florence Dunnington and Mrs. Sonny Wentworth both present in the store at the time of the shooting.

Little O. J. Cunningham, 3 years old, is expected to be called as a witness.

MOTHER SITS CALMLY AT MURDER TRIAL

The first witness to testify when evidence was begun at 10 a. m. Tuesday in the trial of Mrs. Flossie Cunningham for the murder of her husband, O. J. Cunningham, was Don Luckey, Rockdale undertaker.

The second witness was Arthur Hahn, manager of the grocery in which the shooting occured. Attorneys for the defense as well as for the State, went into considerable detail over Mr. Hahn's testimony and a map was drawn with his assistance in an effort to reconstruct the killing for the jury. Mr. Hahn seemed confused at times and his testimony took up almost the entire forenoon.

His testimony was followed by Mrs. Hahn who was in the store at the time Mrs. Cunningham fired four shots at her husband.

A supplementary venire of 20 men was summoned early Tuesday from which one juror was selected to complete the jury of 12 men who are to try Mrs. Flossie Cunningham for the murder of her husband.

When the court adjourned at 10:45 Monday night only eleven jurors had been selected. State and defense attorneys had spent the entire day wrestling with the problem of selecting the jury.

Mrs. Cunningham is on trial for the murder of her husband, O. J. Cunningham. The killing occured according to Mrs. Cunningham, over their separation and the custody of a baby boy. Mrs. Cunningham who wanted the baby at night to sleep

Valter White who will take oath of office as Sheriff for Milam County on January 1st, today announced appointment of Deputies to assist him in the duties of the office.

The Deputies will be: Carl C. Black of Cameron and LeRoy Massengale of Maysfield.

In announcing the appointments Mr. White was deeply touched by the many offers of co-operation from applicants and greatly appreciates that so many were interested in his coming administration.

Mr. White said that he had given extended and careful consideration to all applicants and made his decision after taking all circumstances and facts into account. He feels that he has selected two fine young men to assist him and both can work in the office or serve as field deputies as occasion demands.

Mr. Black is a native citizen of Milam county and has lived in Cameron for a number of years, owning farming interests in the Jones Prairie Community. Mr. Massengale is also a native of Milam County and comes from the Maysfield Community where Mr. White was born and reared. Both men have been life long fiends of Mr. White and he is assured of complete cooperation and understanding of his policies when he becomes Sheriff.

Mr. White, in his campaign, asked the people to give the young man a chance. In selecting his dequties he has named men who are young but experienced and will be both energetic and at the same time fit well into the place of co-operation with all the people in all sections of the county.

Fossils From Herald Museum Are Offered To School Here

Valuable fossils accumulated over ten years at the Herald meuseum have been given to the high school in Cameron for the benefit of students in the study of natural history.

J. C. Martin, President of the Board and E. A. Perrin, Superintendent, are weighing the problem of how best to house these specimen and hope to be able to accept them.

The collection includes rare specimen of Pliocene horse teeth and one upper skull, thought to be one of the best known to the world. There are mammoth and mastadon bones and teeth and other fossils, including marine fossil and shark's teeth found in Milam county.

Both Mr. Martin and Mr. Perrin fully appreciate the value of these finds. Their problem is adaquate space to house them at the school.

FORMER RESIDENT OF CAMERON BURIED HERE

Henry Dorrah, 63, former resident of Cameron, died in a Waco hospital at 12:45 p. m. Sunday as result of injuries sustained when he was struck by an automobile driven by Cecil Shelby of Waco Tuesday night.

Mr. Dorrah was reared in Cameron and operated the Brooks dairy here for a number of years. At the time of his death he was living in Waco.

Funeral services were held at the grave in Oak Hill Cemetery in Cameron at 9:30 a. m. Monday with Rev. T. D. McCrary, pastor of the Methodist church of Buckholts, officiating.

Surviving are three sisters, Miss Ida Dorrah, teacher in the public schools of Dallas; Mrs. J. A. Bass and Mrs. A. T. Ray of Breckenridge; and one brother, J. E. Dorrah of Groesbeck.

JOHN W. MILLS BACK AS METHODIST PASTOR

John W. Mills, pastor of First Methodist church, has been returned to the pastorate here by the Texas Conference in Houston.

Cameron was happy to realize that Mills is to be here for another year. Seldom has a pastor been more heartily received than Rev. Mills who came to the church in the fall of 1939. His ministry has been outstanding and at the Conference his work was specially commended.

Few men have found so large a place of service in the community. The people of Cameron like him for the good qualities they find in him as a citizen. This measure of appreciation is quite apart from his work as a pastor. As the months come and go Cameron will lean heavily upon his leadership.

Yoemen Pointing to Last Game Here on Friday With Rosebud

Coach Wood was in the home stretch this week with but one game ahead, that with Rosebud here on Friday night.

It will be the last confernece game of the year. A number of the squad will be playing for the Maroon and Gray the last time.

There was every indication the Yoemen would make a grand finish by defeating Rosebud, traditional rivals. Interest has been heightened some because of the action of superintendent Jones of Rosebud, who was a member of the Committee in Belton that threw the Yoemen out of the District title race.

The boys were working out and getting set for this last game of the year. Following their defeat of Hearne Friday night they are very much back in the running for a good game of football here aginst the Black Panthers.

REGAL CITY KILLING SEES MOTHER ON TRIAL

She shot her husband, O. J. Cunningham on October 3, in Rockdale. The flare up of violence in the Regal City occured in a down town grocery when Mrs. Cunningham walked calmy into the store and sent a stream of bullets at her husband.

The killing occured over their little girl. The mother wanted to have the child with her at night to sleep with and comfort. They had agreed on Sunday, September 29, to a divorce and she was to have the child at night. She charged her husband not only refused to keep his agreement but would not let her see the bady at any time. Hurt over failure to see her baby and in desperation she overtook her husband in a local grocery in Rockdale and opened fire.

E. A. Camp of Rockdale and Emory B. Camp of Cameron will appear for Mrs. Cunningham and W. A. (Bill)) Morrison, Criminal District Attorney, will prosecute the case. A venire of 75 men has been ordered for jury service Monday morning.

SINGING CONVENTION SUNDAY

On Sunday, November 17, the Milam County Singing Convention will meet in Milano. The event will last all day and everyone is asked to bring their lunch.

ROSEBUD PANTHERS TO INVADE FRIENDLY CITY

Yoemen Will Dedicate Friday Night Game To "Their Friends in Cameron;" It Is Their Last Game of Season; Big Crowd Expected

Two prominent Yoemen backs were talking things over and speculating on the Friday night game here against the Rosebud Black Panthers.

"We should make this a good game and dedicate it," said one to the other. "Well, let's dedicate it to our friends in Cameron." So they agreed.

Maybe it didn't happen just like that but it was something like that.

Some thought dedications should have been made in other directions but what could be better than just simply to dedicate it to the Friends of the Yoemen in Cameron. That will just about take in every human being in this section of the country.

So we move on from here.

The stands should be crowded for several reasons, one of which is that it is the last time a number of the Yoemen will play under the colors of Yoe High School and further, the boys want this to be a triumph. They have made their plans to win and not dissappoint you.

It's no secret they want to beat Rosebud. Superintendent Jones was in on the kill at Belton. He dealt us the blow that took us out of the title race. Hence it will be an added pleasure to beat Rosebud.

Nobody is mad at anybody, just determined to win the game and end the Yoemen season in a blaze of glory.

The boys have played hard. They have upheld the highest traditions of Yoe High. They have suffered all the disasters that could befall a bunch of boys to break their hearts. They didn't quit. They just hugged their coach a little harder and made a name for themselves in this worst of all conference years.

We owe it to them to be there Friday night.

Those Yoemen will show you how to fight when things seem blackest. God bless 'em. They'll be awfully disappointed if you are not there.

It's a mistake about dedicating the game to the Daily Midget. They are dedicating it to their Friends in Cameron. "I'll be one that won't disappoint them," said a grizzled veteran of gridiron fandom this morning.

ATTORNEYS IN HUDDLE OVER JURY CHARGE

Proceedings in the trial have been slowed up somewhat by frequent objections, largely on the part of the defense attorneys, resulting in much discussion of the law regarding court procedure. The jury has enjoyed many recesses while decisions were being reached.

The most frequent objections were raised during the questioning of Mrs. Cunningham by District Attorney Morrison. Many pleas were submitted by the defense for declaration of a mistrial charging continued misconduct on the part of the District Attorney when he tried to question Mrs. Cunningham about her relations with her former husband, Kelso Rogers. In marked contrast to her testimony for the defense Mr. Morrison had difficulty in obtaining definite answer to his questions, which is to be expected.

Character and fact witnesses took the remainder of the morning, the afternoon, night and this morning until 10 o'clock when court was adjourned.

The defense had a well coached tean on the field and ran up a large score before the District Attorney was able to leave his dugout.

As the testimony drew to a close late character and other witnesses in the trial of Mrs. O. J. Cunningham were: Dr. T. E. Crump, Giles Yoakum of Milano, Frank Cummings, negro of Rockdale, Justice of Peace Leo Harris of Rockdale, Conn R. Issacs, Jack Lewis of Rockdale, Fred Simank, Billy Brockenbusch, Cul Carlisle, W. N. Hale, Dan F. Bounds, Robert Brannon, A. J. Mien, W. N. Hairston, Miss Ester Lynch, Lesser Newton, Max Darden, C. H. Landis, W. C. Colvin, D. S. Sanderford, Gus Backhaus, Mrs. Marshall Storey, Penn Wolf and Judge Leo Harris.

Mrs. J. D. Cunningham, mother of O. J. Cunningham was disqualified as a possible witness for alleged discussion of the evidence with other qualified witnesses in the presence of the District Attorney.

Judge Graham Gillis announced at 10 a. m. that both the State and Defense attorneys would have to reach an agreement on the legal court proceedure before the argument can begin. He stated that there would be no argument before 1:30 p. m. at the earliest.

BRITISH AIR MARSHAL TAKEN BY ITALIANS

The British Parliament opened its regular session today with King George presiding and making the opening address.

He stated that the British people would ultimately be victorious because of the strong arming and help of their friends and the "tenacity of the British people."

A highlight of the Italian war is the capture of Air Marshal Owen Tudor Boyd whom the Italians claim had been sent over Italy, where he was captured when his plane was forced down by fighters, to scout and plan a renewed attack on Italian supply bases.

The air war is still increasing in intensity, the Germans again bombing Birmingham, apparently intending to destroy it completely.

DUCE GETS OFF BIG BLAST AT THE BRITISH

Although the Italians in Rome claimed that a division of Greek troops had been taken prisoners and Britain and Germany exchanged blows in the air the war was another stalemate and the big news of the day was the reported confernce between Adolph Hitler and a representative of the Spanish government.

The Axis powers have been holding hurried conferences during the past few weeks looking toward a concerted drive on England in the Mediterranean sea, most observers believed.

The whole war has been a series of crisis brews hatched up by the Axis. During the last few weeks only the attack on Greece has followed diplomatic activity.

Molotoff's visit to Berlin has thus failed to produce another conquest but many believe Hitler will now have to go to the aid of the Greeks and that may lead to the long expected Axis attack for an outlet to the near east and the British oil fields and strategic Suez.

Benito Mussolini today reaffirmed the Axis solidarity and denied that his navy had been rendered helpless in the Mediterranean.

The Duce admitted that three ships had been damaged.

There was growing belief that France may yet find a way to oppose further concessions to Germany with General Weigand in Morroco and a power in the near east and General DeGaulle reporting a peaceful conquest of French Equitorial Africa. With bases established some believed that England is getting ready for an invasion attempt to

PAUL WATSON TO WED DOROTHY SEALE OF TAYLOR

Form Taylor Press, Nov. 9th.

An unusually lovely tea was tendered Saturday evening to announce the engagement and forthcoming marriage of Miss Dorothy Seale, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer J. Seale of Bartlett to Paul Watson, son of Judge and Mrs. John Watson of Cameron.

The couple will be married Saturday, Nov. 23, in an evening ceremony at 7:30 o'clock at the First Presbyterian Church in Taylor with Rev. A. B. Byers, pastor, reading the marriage vows.

The announcement party was given by the bride's mother at the home of Mrs. W. L. Helms in Taylor, 1212, Lexington Street. More than fifty guests called during the hours 3:30 to 5:30 o'clock.

In the receiving line were Mrs. Elmer J. Seale, Miss Dorothy Seale, Mrs Morgan Seale of Bartlett and Miss Marguerite Hendricks. Mrs. Alton Mann presided at the guest book.

The tea table featured an all-white bridal theme. A lace cloth was used and the center of the table was marked with an arrangement of white chrysanthemums and ferns in a crystal bowl. Silver holders held tall white burning tapers and the tapers and the table appointments were in crystal. Mrs. Alva Shavers poured the tea and Miss Claudine Carter assisted at the table. The first hint of the nature of the affair was a cookie topped with a question mark. As the guests departed Mrs. W. L. Helms presented each with the scroll which revealed the announcement and was inscribed "Dorothy and Paul, November 23."

Miss Seale is a Bartlett high school graduate and attended an Austin business college.

Mr. Watson is a Cameron high school graduate and attended the University of Texas, Austin. He is connected with the Texas Power & Light Company in Taylor as chief clerk. The couple will be at home in Taylor.

"Build-Up" Good News For Suffering Women

Much of women's periodic distress may be unnecessary!

Many who suffer from headaches, nervousness, cramp-like pain, other symptoms of functional dysmenorrhea due to malnutrition are helped by CARDUI.

Main way it helps relieve periodic distress is by increasing appetite and flow of gastric juice. Thus it often aids digestion; helps build strength, energy, resistance to periodic disturbances.

Others find help for periodic discomfort this way: Start a few days before and take CARDUI until "the time" has passed. Women have used CARDUI more than 50 years.

JOIN RED CROSS

The Milam County Red Cross Roll Call drive was given an impressive send off Tuesday with a rally for workers and chairmen at the American Legion Hut in Ledbetter Park.

Yoelets Defeated By Belton 7 to 0

The Yoe High School B Squad concluded a successful football season Tuesday afternoon when they played the Belton Kittens at Belton. The teams were well matched, but the Yoelets outplayed the Kittens with 11 first downs to two.

The Belton team looked somewhat different Tuesday from two weeks ago when the Yoelets played the Kittens here. A number of the Belton A squad strengthened the playing.

The first quarter the Yoelets received the kickoff, carried the ball to their own tewnty-five yard line. The Yoelets had a hard time penetrating the Kittens line but carried on to the Belton's 32 yard line where the ball was fumbled. The Kittens could go only a few yards at a time.

The second quarter was played mostly in the middle of the field where the Yoelets outplayed the Kittens with the score remaining the same.

After the half the Yoelets received again, bringing the ball up to Belton's 30 yard line. With a number of passes the ball was carried a few yards where the Yoelets lost the ball. The Kittens took the ball a few more yards and punted.

In the beginning of the 4th quarter, Cameron had the ball on the Belton 3 yard line with two downs to make a touchdown, but one of Cameron's players ran off side and the Yoelets received a penalty and were set back five yards.

The game was 0-0 until the last five minutes of play when the Kittens intercepted a Yoelet pass and ran twenty-five yards for a touchdown. With five minutes left to play the Yoelets received the kickoff playing the ball to the Kittens 45 yard line. The ball was then powered to Belton's twelve pard line, ending the game.

with and care for, could not overcome the love of a mother for her child and armed herself, and when she found her husband in a grocery store in Rockdale late in the afternoon of October 3, she opened fire, one of the bullets taking effect from which Cunningham died in a Cameron hospital around 10 p. m. that night.

Mrs. Cunningham sat beside her attorneys, Camp and Camp apparently un-moved by the proceedings in the court room which has been crowded by spectators since the trial opened early Monday morning.

When the killing occured she made a statement in which she said she had agreed to a divorce from her husband and one of the conditions of the agreement was her husband's right to custody of the child during the day and she was to have the baby at night.

On the Sunday prior to the killing, the agreement was reached and he took the child. She said that her husband not only failed to keep his agreement to give th child to her at night, but had refused her permission to visit the child at anytime.

A stream of bullets poured into Cunningham as he stood in a grocery store in Rockdale and he collapsed, dying later in a Cameron hospital.

Mrs. Cunningham quietly surrendered to officers and detailed her heartbreak telling the story of how she had suffered over what she thought to be the loss of her baby.

Cunningham was sentenced to state prison some years ago for an attempt to murder Mrs. Floyd Horton, rural mail carrier. He secreted himself in a clump of woods near a mail box and opened fire on Mrs. Horton, who escaped.

Cunningham was deaf from birth and was a barber by trade.

BRITISH PROMISE TO DEMOLISH POTSDAM

Axis Diplomacy and Hitler's Power Politics had brought another country into the orbit of totalitarian influence today as Hungary signed up to take dictation from Rome and Berlin.

Next in order to completely and officially surrender will be Rumania, already occupied by German soldiers.

As the picture shaped up today Turkey was standing her ground against Germany and Italy and was to all intents and purposes cooperating with England to keep her Anglo alliance. Turkey was in a bad spot and her press seemed to give up any hope of staying out of the war.

Britain said tody that all help pledged Greece had been forthcoming and more is to follow. The Greeks were whipping El Duce tropps all over the Albanian mountains and threatened to run them into the Adriatic and British naval power crept closer to the Italian boot. An attack on a small island in the Dodacanese group by the British was repulsed, said the Italians.

Birmingham was stunned today by the fury of the Nazi boming raid on this important industrial center and promptly pledged a like raid on Potsdam, Germany. Here is the first announced British revenge raid.

Potsdam is historic and is sometime called the Versailles of Germany. There lies the body of Frederick the Great. It is also a library town and has no military importance and few small manufacturing interests.

Birmingham, England, was said to have suffered the same fate as Coventry. Here are many vital British industries.

John L. Lewis, head of the CIO, threw a monkey wrench into plans for labor and industrial peace and the Roosevelt administration was faced with another of its nurtured recalcitrants now going on the bludgeon. What ultimately the government will do to stave off disorder, seemed to be suggested in these and other proceedings.

GERMANS LAUNCH BIG AIR WAR; DUCE LOSES

Coventry, England, was a shambles today and hundreds were slain in what Germany termed a revenge bombing.

The most destructive raid in the history of aerial warfare, was the estimate placed on the raid by Nazi planes by the German High Command in Berlin.

Taking part in the raid were believed to be more than 1000 bombers. Large bombs, weighing over 2000 pounds—four thousand of them were hurled into the midst of the city.

The British said early today many civilians were slain. It was believed that 1000 or more may have lost their lives.

The bombing of Munich where Adolph Hitler, made a speech last week, caused the retaliation, said a German version of the bombing.

One of the more representative types of medival cathedrals in England was smashed in the attack on Coventry, a city of the population of Flint, Michigan.

Down in the eastern Mediterranean sea the British were taking a frightful toll of Italian naval strength. The harbor and dock facilities at Toronta where on Nov. 11 three battleships of the Italian Navy, two cruisers and other naval crafts—12 ships in all, were put out by British planes, was said to be in ruins. Toronta is Italy's greatest naval base.

The British navy was reported to have pushed through Italian waters to the mouth of the Adriatic sea and there cut off all supplies to Italian armies in Albania.

The Greeks were reported to have scored additional successes against the Italians.

Diplomatic representatives of Germany and Italy were meeting in what was formerly an Austrian city today, presumably to begin what most observers believe is the next big push for world dominion.

Spanish envoys were on their way to Vichy, France, to confer with the Marshal Petain government. Spain, asking a hundred million dollar loan fom America was said to be short of food and may not be at all inclined to join in a war on Britain.

YOEMEN TAKE EAGLES 13-0 IN BITTER COLD

It is no secret that the Yoemen played their hearts out against Belton here on November 8.

They rose above the disheartening treatment over the ineligibility case to play one of their best games of the year against the Tigers. They lost 19 to 14.

Last night at Hearne they proved that spirit can overcome disaster and gave the Eagles a lacing they won't forget for many a day. The score was 13 to 0 in favor of the Yoemen but does not begin to tell the story of how they outplayed the Eagles.

Desperate passing with Abbott on the receiving end brought a fourth quarter hope to the Eagles as they took the ball in midfiled and went to the Yoemen 8 yard line. On an attempted end run they lost 8 yards and on next play a pass was intercepted by Hays in the end zone as he stopped inches short of the goal line. The Yoemen were penalized 15 yards for clipping and after another unsuccessful pass the Yoemen took over and had marched the ball to their own 36 when the game ended.

Red Bell scored the first touchdown for the Yoemen in the first few minutes of play after Hays on sweeping end runs alternating with Cobb and Tindall placed the ball on the Eagle 3 yard line. Salach found his toe and the score was 7; Eagles 0.

At the half the score was unchanged and there was a bit of good play on both sides with the Yoemen by their superior running game having advantage.

In the third quarter the Yoemen took the ball on their own 7 where Hays let the ball die after a punt down field from Abbott. The march began and culminated when Hays took it across from the 4 yard line to make the score Yoemen 13; Eagles 0.

The Yoemen threatened several times but were unable to score when the Eagle line, playing superb ball threw back the surging maroon tide.

It was a cold night and few people sat in the stands. Fires blazed along the sidelines out of the playing zone. Attendance of Hearne fans was low and it was the poorest patronized game of the year.

The Cameron band, struck hard by illness, was but a skeleton of its real strength and remained in a small huddle far across the field from the Hearne crowd.

The win is a tribute to the spirit of the Yoemen and their co-operation with Coach Carol Wood. All this year there has been a common bond of great pride and loyalty between coach and men. Seldom has Cameron seen a better spirit. It is due to this harmonious work that Yoemen have been able to overcome every disaster known to football.

But one game remains. The Rosebud Black Panthers comes to Cameron November 22nd. It will be the game of the year we want to win for a number of reasons. The Yoemen will not disappoint you. Make your plans now and let's make this a satisfactory victory to close a season that began in gloom but ended in a blaze of glory.

If it had not been their great misfortune to be adjudged ineligible in the Georgetown and Rockdale games, the Yoemen would have won the conference.

The order of service includes the reading of a Lesson-Sermon on the topic of "Thanksgiving." Opportunity is also afforded those present to give testimonies of gatitude appropriate to the occasion.

The Golden Text is: "Rejoice in the Lord, ye righteous; and give thanks at the remembrance of his holiness" (Psalms 97:12.)

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Rejoice in the Lord alawys: and again I say, Rejoice . . . Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God" (Phillipians 4:4, 6.)

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Whatever inspires with wisdom, Truth, or Love—be it song, sermon or Science—blesses the human family with crumbs of comfort from Christ's table, feeding the hungry and giving living waters to the thirsty" (page 324.)

U S CONSIDERS AID WITH ARMS TO GREECE

Posters had appeared on the streets of Tokyo today warning the people of Japan to prepare for war with America.

It is the first outbreak of hostility against the United States since the recent excange of notes on the invasion of Indo-China when the Japanese Foreign Minister said Japan was ready to fight.

The United States has moved swiftly for a showdown in the Far East and the warning to the people of Tokyo was taken to indicate a crisis in the American-Japanese relations.

On the International checker board many moves were made indicating an early showdown from all quarters.

From Washington Under Secretary of State Sumner Welles revealed today that the United States is considering giving aid to Greece in her war against Italy by supplying arms, presumably on the same basis that Great Britain is now receiving herself, half the production of war materials in this country.

From Bucharest, Rumania came the report that Soviet Foreign Minister Molotoff has agreed that Germany may have control of the Balkans. This was subject to confirmation.

Late this week in Vienna representatives of Hungary, Bulgaria, Germany and Italy will hold a conference and this is believed to be the crux of the weeks diplomatic activities over which war may spread to the entire Balkan countries and into Asia-Minor.

The Germans are doing their best to stir up trouble with Ireland. Today they bombed Ireland. So far the Irish have declined to give Great Britain naval and air bases off the Irish coast.

Liverpool was damaged today by German planes but on the whole there was a lull in military action on the continent.

BELTON TIGERS TAKE REGAL CITY 7 TO 6

Belton's up and coming Tigers got into the championship picture in a big way last night when they beat the Rockdale Tigers by a close score of 7 to 6.

When the "committee on credentials" met in Belton and decided to throw Cameron out of the race, Rockdale was awarded the game which they had lost to Cameron.

Rockdale has lost three games this season in conference play. One each to Cameron, Killeen and Belton.

The victory for Belton Friday night in Rockdale was a fourth quarter triumph with a climax run by Jeffers now the best back in the District. Rockdale scored in the second quqarter and held on in a battle that was hard fought, for the slender lead.

The hearts were torn out of the Regal City Tigers and their backers when Jeffers of Belton Tigers broke loose for a 25 yard run and a score. Bradford for Belton added the extra point and the Rockdale Tigers were just another ball club.

Rockdale scored in the second quarter as their power game marched the ball down field from the Belton 39 and Krause carried it over from the 3 yard line.

Rockdale with 11 returning lettermen was the best ball club in the conference but for some reason was never able to get going, although they knocked off Taylor 6 to 0. Last night Belton made 12 first downs and Rockdale 7.

SCIENCE GUARDS America's telephone service

Men of science watch as fantastic apparatus enacts an unrehearsed drama before their eager eyes . . . nearby, other research experts peer into their microscopes . . . in another room, laboratory technicians put through grueling tests some new and better part for America's telephone system . . .

The scene is the Bell Telephone Laboratories where nearly 5,000 scientists and assistants explore the unknown to build a better telephone service for America. Today their thousands of inventions and developments serve America.

By modern scientific methods huge telephone cables are made and buried underground, guarded from floods, fires, storms, and other disasters. Some of the more important cables are filled with gas, so that the smallest leak in the lead covering sounds an automatic alarm, summoning repair crews.

America's telephone system, guarded by science, is armed to withstand many attacks which a few years ago might have silenced thousands of telephones and isolated many communities.

Today Americans, in any emergency, turn to the telephone, knowing they will receive fast, dependable service.
